Exercices I/O

1. Write a function who toggles all outputs of the port G.
2. Write a function who outputs on port A [3:0] what is on port B [6:3].
3. Write a function who returns the count of one on port B.
4. Write a function who returns the state of a bit position given as parameter (port and bit number).
5. Write a function who toggles a bit position given as parameter on port E.
6. Write a function who wait all port H pin to be on to return.